FEDERAL GRANT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Federal funds are being used to pay for all or part of this purchase. Any supplier receiving these funds as full or partial payment for goods or services must be able to comply with the following federal terms and conditions. These terms and conditions are dictated by the funding agency. The University of Michigan must comply by insuring that the supplier selected understands and can abide by the funding agency requirements. The University of Michigan cannot deviate from or alter the terms and conditions required by the funding agency.

The Supplier agrees, with respect to the award (purchase order, contract, or subcontract), to be bound by the following applicable Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Uniform Guidance (2 CFR 200): The Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards incorporated by reference, with the same force and effect, as if they were given in full text.
